Vs.

The State of Bihar & Ors.

C.A.No.1263 of 2001

(Arijit Pasayat and P. Sathasivam JJ.)

01.02.2008

JUDGMENT

Arijit Pasayat, J.

1. Challenge in this appeal is to the judgment of a Division Bench of the Patna High Court dismissing the Letters Patent Appeal filed by the appellants.

2. The factual controversy lies in a very narrow compass. Proceedings under the Bihar Land Reforms (Fixation of Ceiling Area and Acquisition of Surplus Land) Act, 1961 (in short the Act) were initiated against the landholder family of Budh Prakash Singh. Smt. Kamla Devi was daughter in law and Smt. Bageshwari Devi was granddaughter of aforesaid Budh Prakash Singh. In the said Land Ceiling Case No. 23/73-74 after draft publication and on consideration of the objection made by Budh Prakash Singh, orders were passed by the L.R.D.C., Aurangabad against which the aforesaid persons filed an application for revision before the provisional authority. By order dated 7.4.1977 the revisional authority in revision case No.1986/76 accepted some of the objections of Budh Prakash Singh, but parts of the objections were rejected. However, as final publication was not made, after the amendment of the Act by Bihar Land Reforms (Fixation of Ceiling Area and Acquisition of Surplus Land) Amendment Act, 1982 (hereinafter referred to as the Amendment Act), the matter was taken afresh from the stage of Section 10 of the Act. At the stage of fresh proceedings following objections were raised:

“(a) The classification of lands was not properly made.

(b) The lands which belonged to the son Chittaranjan Prasad Singh (now deceased) should not have been included.

(c) The lands gifted to Smt. Kamla Devi, daughter-in-law; lands gifted to Smt. Bageshwari Devi, granddaughter and lands gifted to two daughters, namely, Nirmala Kumari and Sashibala within the grace period should be excluded.

3. L.R.D.C. by order dated 14.5.1984 accepted part of the objection and ordered for exclusion of the land gifted during grace period in favor of two daughters, namely, Nirmala Kumari and Sashibala. However, rest of the objections including the objection relating to classification of land was rejected. A Ceiling Appeal was preferred and the appellate authority by order dated 10.9.1985 accepted part of the objection. Certain lands which were earlier classified as Class-I land were held not properly to have been done. However, the other part of the classification was held to be valid. The gift made in favor of the two daughters was confirmed but the claim relating to deletion of land gifted in favor of daughter-in-law, Kamla Devi and granddaughter Bageshwari Devi was rejected. Thereafter revision case No.387/85 was preferred. The revision authority by revision order dated 28.4.1987, rejected the same. A writ petition was filed before the High Court and the primary stand was relating to classification made to declare certain lands as surplus. Similarly, no exclusion of the gifts in favor of Kamla Devi and Bageshwari Devi were questioned. The States stand was that the amended definition of landholder as amended in 1973 was applicable. It was pointed out that the land ceiling proceedings were not initiated against any individual but against the family. In view of the definition of the expression family, Kamla Devi, Bageshwari Devi and Chittaranjan Prasad Singh come within the definition of family and their land stood included. So far as the classification is concerned, it was submitted that after due verification and with reference to irrigational facility available the classification was made.

4. Learned Single Judge of the High Court did not find any substance in the stand taken in the writ petition. It was noted that gift was made in favor of Bageshwari Devi when she was child of about 8 months and even after such alleged gift rent was paid to Budh Parkash Singh and the lands purportedly to be gifted to Kamla Devi and Bageshwari Devi were, in fact, in the possession of Budh Parkash Singh. The writ petition was dismissed. In the writ appeal, the stand taken was that the effect of the amended provisions i.e. Sections 32A and 32B had not been kept in view. It was submitted that there was no de novo enquiry and that having been not done; the judgment of the learned Single Judge was unsustainable. The Division Bench did not find any substance in the plea and with reference to Section 10 of the Act, writ appeal was dismissed.

5. In support of the appeal, learned counsel for the appellant submitted that the true effect of the amendment has not been kept in view. If the draft statement was repeated there was no need for inserting Sections 32A and 32B. According to him, there was need for enquiry and the procedures contemplated under Sections 6, 8 and 9 were to be adopted.

6. Learned counsel for the respondents on the other hand supported the orders.

7. At this juncture, it would be appropriate to take note of Sections 10, 11, 32A and 32B of the Act. They read as follows:

“10. Preparation of draft statement,--(1) On the basis of the information given by or on behalf of the land holder under Section 6, 8, 9 or the information obtained by the Collector under Section. 7, checked in the prescribed manner, the Collector shall cause a draft statement to be prepared showing the following particulars (a) the area and description of-

Collector who shall, after giving the parties a "reasonable opportunity of being heard and adducing evidence, pass such order as he thinks fit.

Provided that the Collector may on an application made by the land-holder or a person having claim or interest in the land extend the period of filing objection by another fifteen days. Final publication of draft statement—

(2) Copies of such statement duly authenticated in the prescribed manner shall by the Collector within such period and to such authority or authorities, as may be proscribed.]32-A. Abatement of appeal, revision, review or reference.-An appeal, revision, review or reference other than those arising out of order passed under Section 8 or sub-section (3) of Section 16 pending before any authority on the date of commencement of the Bihar Land Reforms (Fixation of Ceiling Area and Acquisition of Surplus Land) (Amendment) Act, 1982 shall abate. Provided that on such abatement, the Collector shall proceed with the case afresh in accordance with the provisions of Section 10: Provided further that such appeal, revision, review or reference arising out of orders passed under Section 8 of sub-section (3) of Section 16 as has abated under Section 13 of the Bihar Land Reforms (Fixation of Ceiling Area and Acquisition of Surplus Land) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1981 (Bihar Ordinance No. 66 of 1981) shall stand automatically restored before the proper authority on the commencement of this Act. 32-B Initiation of fresh proceeding.--All those proceedings other than appeal, revision, review or reference referred to in Section 32-A pending on the date of commencement of the Bihar Land Reforms (Fixation of Ceiling Area and Acquisition of Surplus Land) (Amendment) Act, 1982 and in which final publication under sub-section (1) of Section 11 of the Act as it stood before the amendment by the aforesaid Act, had not been made, shall be disposed of afresh in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of the Act"

8. A bare reading of Section 32-A shows that where an appeal, revision, review or reference other than those arising out of order passed under Section 8 or sub-section (3) of Section 16 is pending before any authority on the date of commencement of the Act, the same shall abate. The proviso is of significance. It stipulates that the Collector shall proceed with the case afresh in accordance with provisions of Section 10. The interpretation given by the learned counsel for the appellants is that the use of the expression afresh means that whatever was done earlier has to be totally obliterated and there has to be a fresh look on all aspects including classification and status of the parties involved. Sub-section (1) of Section 10 deals with preparation of draft statement. Sub-section (3) is of considerable importance. It provides that when there is any objection to the draft statement in respect of the matters specified in clause (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) received within 30 days of the publication of the draft statement or service thereof under sub-section (2), whichever is latter, when preferred by any person having claim or interest in the matters shall be considered by the Collector and after giving reasonable opportunity of adducing evidence the Collector shall pass such orders as it deems fit. Even though there is repetition of the draft statement which was prepared earlier, the scope for making objection as provided under sub-section (3) of Section 10 still exists. If the notice has any objection to any part of the draft statement in respect of the specified matters, the same can be taken within the stipulated period and the authorities are required to consider them. There is also provision for adducing evidence.

9. That being so, the stand that the person who wants to prefer the objection is deprived of adequate opportunity is without substance.

10. In view of the above position, there is no merit in this appeal which is accordingly dismissed. There will be no order as to costs.
